

Announcement of Rajabhat Rajanagarindra University

Regarding : The policy “On No Gift Policy”

Rajabhat Rajanagarindra University, represented by the President and university executives at all levels, hereby declares itself as an organization where all government personnel are required to refrain from accepting any kind of gifts or gratuities in return for their duties. The President and executives, at all levels, commit to performing their roles with integrity, practicing good governance, transparency, and responsibility to foster trust within society. This commitment is aimed at combating corruption in all its forms and aligning with the principles of management at Rajabhat Rajanagarindra University, aspiring to be an organization characterized by integrity and transparency in its practices.

To enforce this commitment, a management policy for administrators and guidelines for university personnel regarding the “No Gift Policy” have been established:

1. All administrators, staff, and university personnel are strictly prohibited from accepting any kind of gifts, whether before, during, or after performing their duties. Furthermore, receiving any valuable items of monetary value from the University’s contracting parties, companies, or individuals involved in decisions, both directly and indirectly, is strictly prohibited.
2. All administrators, staff, and university personnel are prohibited from offering gifts, gratuities, or any items of monetary value to individuals who are in contact with government officials.
3. All administrators, staff, and university personnel must abstain from seeking or obtaining gifts, gratuities, or any other unlawful benefits.
4. Congratulations, expressions of good wishes, and welcome greetings should be conveyed through the signing of greeting cards, condolence cards, or the use of social media, rather than through the exchange of physical gifts.

This announcement is hereby made for your acknowledgment.
